At a moderate estimate, one hundred and twenty to one hundred and thirty millions per annum are collected from the people of this country to forty millions must be the estimate of a direct tax. This estimate is only to the twelve thousand dollars following the pattern of the other states, which they legally demand. But, imposed over a period long or short, the burden will be heavy; and we point it out to our readers only that they may be prepared for the worst. They may, truly, say, that in the coming year the importance of the political instruments of the armistice at such a pace that the necessary but unhappy contract may be speedily concluded. Let them say so, to God, that the man who will appear before the people of this country when upon the scene of the armistice, will be a man of social corruption, no desire to enrich, or corrupt, no ambitious longing for the

We have barely three questions to ask the Colonel. First—Democracy?

1. Did you have any criticism of a disposition to muzzle among the soldiers in Gen. McDowell's army? We have not heard of it. Nobody seems to have heard of it until it became necessary to find a scapegoat for the great disaster outside of official circles.

2. Was Gen. Scott appointed to command the soldiers, or were they appointed to command him?

3. Did Gen. Scott become noted for his weakness of yielding to the clamors of his men? Or, on the contrary, has he been distinguished for putting down the clamor on the first appearance of insubordination, by muzzling his soldiers' rant inferior officers by the most rigid rules of army discipline?

This attempt to elude or by shifting the blame from the few newspapers which urged an early advance movement on Richmond to the mass of the press (the Manassas) to the brave soldiers themselves, who were hurled against impregnable batteries and overwhelming odds, is the last subterfuge of baffled ignorance and malice.

The Illinois 80th Regiment.

Our correspondent writes from Camp Girard, Mo., where the Illinois 80th regiment is stationed, giving an interesting account of a recent episode thirty miles into the interior of the rebel zone.

Under command of Captain Richards of Company E, it was absent five days, and besides giving the boys a taste of such adventures as the capture of a regiment of mules, to exhibit the stars and stripes to numerous frightened women who had never seen it before, and to give a taste of allegiance to the Republic to the thousands of slaves who were being driven down the river.

The sole cause of the expedition, it may be traced to the fact that the Illinois 80th regiment in the fall, who has allowed himself to be misled by the reports of the press, by occurrences which had nothing to do with the war.

Never fear, sir, that, under Governor Russell, or the military power of the State, Washington will be able to do anything to the capability of the newspapers of the "slightly deluded and easily misled" people.

Will you do us the justice to make room for the following editorial in the Chicago Tribune?

[We have had an opportunity to examine a sample of the uniforms in question, and we must heartily pronounce them most satisfactory. The quality of the material, the neatness of the work, and the appropriateness of the color, are all beyond reproach.—KOS. TRACER.]

FROM CAIRO.

Cavalry Drill—Last Sunday afternoon at Ward's Point—some of the Illinois—its Power on Attack.

[Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.]

It was a fine day, and the weather was just what was needed for the occasion. The cavalry drill, which was held at Ward's Point, was a most interesting one. The Illinois Cavalry, under the command of General Sherman, was seen to great advantage. The drill was executed with precision and skill, and the men were seen to great advantage. The drill was executed with precision and skill, and the men were seen to great advantage.

Congress have resolved to have the great mystery explained, and a report made to the House of Representatives. The House has then, through the action of the committee on the subject, appointed a subcommittee, consisting of Messrs. Clegg, Cramer, and Ladd, to investigate the matter. The committee has been authorized to hold public hearings, and to call before it any witnesses who may be desired. The committee has also been authorized to make such investigations as may be deemed necessary, and to report to the House the results of its proceedings. The committee has been authorized to make such investigations as may be deemed necessary, and to report to the House the results of its proceedings.
